- ii. "Fraudulent practice" means a misrepresentation of facts in order to influence a procurement process or the execution of a contract, and includes collusive practice among bidders (prior to or after bid submission) designed to establish bid prices at artificial non-competitive levels and to deprive the benefits of free and open competition.

D. Center's Right to Terminate for Insolvency: The Center may at any time terminate the Contract by giving written notice to the Contractor, without compensation to the Contractor, if the Contractor becomes bankrupt or otherwise insolvent, provided that such termination will not prejudice or affect any right of action or remedy which has accrued or will accrue thereafter to the Center.

E. Center's Right to Terminate for Convenience: The Center, by written notice sent to the Contractor, may terminate the Contract, in whole or in part, at any time for its convenience. The notice of termination shall specify that termination be for the Center's convenience, the extent to which performance of the Contractor under the Contract is terminated, and the date upon which such termination becomes effective. Any supplies that are completed and readied for payment shall be accepted by the Center at the Contract terms and prices as stated on the invoice.

7. FORCE MAJEURE

In the event of force majeure due to acts of God, civil war or disturbances, or other acts beyond the control of the parties that make the performance of this Contract impossible, the Contract shall be suspended for the said period of force majeure to be resumed as soon as circumstances can allow. In any such case, the duration of the contract shall be negotiated to compensate for the period of suspension.

8. ENTIRE AGREEMENT

This Contract and the attachments hereto constitute the entire agreement between the parties relating to the subject matter hereunder, and supersedes any and all other statements, discussions, representations or agreements made by either party to the other.
