5. TERMINATION

A. Contractor's Right to Terminate: If the Medical Center fails to pay the Contractor within a reasonable time any sums already certified by the Center, then the Contractor may, upon Thirty (30) business days' written notice to the Medical Center, stop the supply and demand payment from the Center for all consumables provided to the notice's date. The parties agreed that presentation of an invoice shall constitute written notice.

B. Medical Center's Right to Terminate: In the event the Contractor failed to services of best quality and standard as requested by the Center's Purchase Order, the Center shall give written notice requiring the Contractor to supply within ten (10) business days. Should the Contractor refuse to comply with the Center's instruction and warning to correct the deviation(s), the Center, without prejudice to any other rights or remedies, may terminate the contract, find another vendor to provide consumables by whatever means the Center may deem expedient.

In the event of the Center's termination, any payment due the Contractor shall be withheld by the Center as liquidated damages incurred by the Center due to the Contractor's default.

C. Center's Right to Terminate for Corrupt or Fraudulent Practices: The Center may, without prejudice to any other remedy for breach of Contract, by written notice of default sent to the Contractor, terminate the Contract in whole or in part if the Contractor, in the judgment of the Center has engaged in corrupt or fraudulent practices in executing the Contract. For the purpose of this clause:

- i. "corrupt practice" means the offering, giving, receiving or soliciting of anything of value to influence the action of a public official in the procurement process or in contract execution; and
- ii. "Fraudulent practice" means a misrepresentation of facts in order to influence a procurement process or the execution of a contract, and includes collusive practice among bidders (prior to or after bid submission) designed to establish bid prices at artificial non-competitive levels and to deprive the benefits of free and open competition.

D. Center's Right to Terminate for Insolvency: The Center may at any time terminate the Contract by giving written notice to the Contractor, without compensation to the Contractor, if the Contractor becomes bankrupt or otherwise insolvent, provided that such termination will not prejudice or affect any right of action or remedy which has accrued or will accrue thereafter to the Center.

- E. Center's Right to Terminate for Convenience: The Center, by written notice sent to the Contractor, may terminate the Contract, in whole or in part, at any time for its convenience. The notice of termination shall specify that termination be for the Center's convenience, the extent to which performance of the Contractor under the Contract is terminated, and the date upon which such termination becomes effective. Any supplies that are completed and readied for payment shall be accepted by the Center at the Contract terms and prices as stated on the invoice.

6. FORCE MAJEURE

In the event of force majeure due to acts of God, civil war or disturbances, or other acts beyond the control of the parties that make the performance of this Contract impossible, the Contract shall be suspended for the said period of force majeure to be resumed as soon as circumstances can allow. In any such case, the duration of the contract shall be negotiated to compensate for the period of suspension.

7. ENTIRE AGREEMENT

This Contract and the attachments hereto constitute the entire agreement between the parties relating to the subject matter hereunder, and supersedes any and all other statements, discussions, representations or agreements made by either party to the other.

8. ENFORCEABILITY

Failure on the part of either party to enforce any provision of this Contract shall not be construed as a general waiver or relinquishment of the right to enforce such provision. If any provision shall be held unenforceable, the validity, legality and enforceability of the remaining provisions shall in no way be affected thereby, and shall remain binding on the Parties.
